

2017 Schedule of Programs

August 14, 7 pm. “The Fight for the Vote at Home and Beyond” at Bristol Valley Theater, 151 S. Main St, Naples. We will co-sponsor this presentation by local historians Sue Winslow, Beth Thomas and Preston Pierce, discussing suffragists including Emily Parmely Collins of South Bristol and other Ontario County women who struggled for suffrage, carrying the torch lit by Susan B. Anthony and others of wider renown.

August 27, 2 pm. “Women on Wheels: Bikes, Liberation and Suffrage” at the Sonnenberg Gardens and Mansion, 151 Charlotte St, Canandaigua. We will co-sponsor this event celebrating the role bicycles played in liberating women and helping suffrage organizers travel the area. Featuring Susan B. Anthony and Elizabeth Cady Stanton, represented by Barbara Blaisdell and Melinda Grube. Refreshments and an optional bike ride!

September 24, 2 pm. Stories and Activities of the Seneca People on the grounds of the 1816 Farmington Meetinghouse, 230 Sheldon Rd., Farmington. Veronica Reitter, member of the Wolf Clan, Seneca Nation, will present a family-centered program of stories and activities to introduce Seneca traditions and customs. We also plan a book fair featuring children’s books related to women’s rights and suffrage; abolition and the Underground Railroad; and Native America culture and lore.

October 28, 7 pm. Arun Gandhi on “The Gift of Anger.” Farmington Friends Church, 187 County Road 8, Farmington. The author will talk on his new book, “The Gift of Anger and Other Lessons from My Grandfather Mahatma.” Books will be available for purchase and signing.
