

Macedon

photo by Richard Palmer

Jordan House built in 1834, is at 1484 Alderman Road, Macedon.

photo by Richard Palmer

This house at 5 West Main St., Macedon, was built in 1839 by Nathan Reed, a Quaker. Cobblestones came from the shore of Lake Ontario near Pultneyville.

photo by Richard Palmer

Bullis House, 1727 Canandaigua Road, Macedon. Built ca. 1839 by Charles Bullis.

photo by Richard Palmer

Historical marker for Bullis House

---

photo by Richard Palmer

Baker House, 815 Canandaigua Road. "J. & D. Baker 1850" on date stone. Jacob Terry was the mason. It is of the Gothic Cottage design.

photo by Richard Palmer

photo by Richard Palmer

North side of house with modern brick chimney.

photo by Richard Palmer

Kitchen side of house

photo by Richard Palmer

Fine herring bone design on Baker House.