

The following books of were presented at the recent Wayne Historians Organization meeting:

2 books ghost written by Donald E Kneeland:

“The Way It Was according to The Founding Pioneers”

From: a Spirited Tour of the Finger Lakes & Western New York
2009

“The Way It Was according to The Rev. William Bostwick (1797-1845) Father Of the Finger Lakes Wine Industry and Jemima Wilkins (1752-1819) The Publick Universal Friend”

From: A Spirited Tour of the Genesee/Finger Lakes Country
2008

Donald Kneeland is also working on a third book.

A book by Julie Cummins:

“Women Daredevils: Thrills, Chills, and Frills”

2008

Book cover information about Julie Cummins: has served as the coordinator of children’s services for the New York Public Library and written numerous journal articles and book reviews. She is the author of several books, ... “Curiosity about the past can lead to amazing discoveries,” she claims, “and sometimes the search is as exciting as the discovery itself!” She lives in Canandaigua, New York.

And from Sources and Acknowledgments: “The early period proved to be the biggest challenge: in many cases the only resources were archival files, newspaper clippings (often so fragile the paper crumbled in your hand), and tidbits in out-of-print books. Internet sites offered fragments of information that were sometimes contradictory, confirming that it should not be considered as the sole source of information.”