

CHAPTER 5	67
British army land-grabbing - economy measures & Amherst's arrogance feeds Indian resentment - Pontiac's Conspiracy - forts Detroit, Pitt, & Niagara besieged; forts & garrisons at Michilimackinac, Sandusky, Preque Isle, & Le Boeuf wiped out - Devil's Hole - Bushy Run breaks siege at Fort Pitt - Pontiac abandons Detroit siege - Delawares and Senecas chastised at Canisteo - Amherst relieved of command - Croghan's gambit - Pontiac accepts peace at Oswego - King George III - the Proclamation Line - Fort Stanwix Treaty of 1768 - Treaty becomes moot by settlers and Revolution
CHAPTER 6	73
The Stamp Tax - Charles Gravier's prophecy - colonial vexations - the Boston Massacre - Tea Party - the Quebec Act - Continental Congress - Joseph Brant - Skenandoah - Lexington, Concord, Ticonderoga, and Bunker Hill - the Invasion of Canada - congress courts Canada - Washington appointed head of Continental Army - Knox hauls cannon from Ticonderoga - British depart Boston - Mohawk Valley in feud - Loyalists flee to Canada - Common Sense - Declaration of Independence - Washington loses Long Island, New York, White Plains gloom - battles of Trenton and Princeton - Gen. Schuyler readies central New York for war - Gen. Benedict Arnold buys time at Valcour Island - Burgoyne's Plan - St. Leger besieges Fort Stanwix - Oriskany ambush - Willett's raid - Arnold's hoax works - Bennington - Battle of Saratoga - Lafayette enlists - Brandywine and Germantown - Doctor Franklin, salesman extraordinaire - the French support the U.S.
CHAPTER 7	89
Brant destroys Oneida Castle - Raids on the frontier - Cobleskill, Wyoming Valley, German Flats - Unadilla, Sheshaquin, Queen Esther's Town, Tioga, Oquaga Cherry Valley - Onondaga - the Sullivan-Clinton Campaign - Lake Otsego - Newtown - Kanadasaga and Chenussio - Boyd and Parker ambushed - Brodhead's raid - Indians flee to British at Niagara - the cold winter of 1779-80 - Brant chastens Oneidas and Tuscaroras - Indian raids resume - Marinus Willett pursues Ross' raiders to West Canada Creek - Walter Butler killed - Willett's last raid - Wars end - the Treaty of Paris - Treaty of Fort Stanwix, 1784 - the Iroquois lament - the Mohawks move to Canada
CHAPTER 8	109
colonial land grants - more land grabbing - Governor Bellomont's reform - Sir William's land gains - Tory Land confiscated - post Revolution patents - the Military Tract - the Oneida, Onondaga, and Cayuga reservations - classical names - lively market and title tangle - French emigrés - the Asylum Company - Shequaga Falls in the Louvre - the founding of Greene - Frenchman's Island - Phelps-Gorham Purchase - Pulteney Purchase and Charles Williamson - Robert Morris and the Holland Land Company - the Pickering and Big Tree Treaties - the Wadsworth family - Seneca reservations
CHAPTER 9	128
Elkanah Watson and the Western Inland Lock Navigation Company - preparing land and staking a claim - early settlers - Yaple, Dumond, and Hennepaw families - William Cooper, Abner Truman, Hugh White, Dominic Lynch - Chaumont and LeRay - the king of Naples and Spain - La Farge - liberalizing corporate, labor, and voting laws - Utica - the Holland Land Co., (east) - Boonville and Cazenovia - Eleazor Williams and the Oneidas - the Lost Dauphin - Watkins and Flint - slow expansion in central New York	