

CONTENTS

Foreword	vii
Explains who Frank S. Peer was, why his life is important and establishes him as an agricultural leader and published chronicler of his times.
Chapter 1 – My Father’s Story	1
Breaking home ties – Aunt Polly – Going on another man’s bonds – Being bound out to service – Imprisoned in a smoke house – Introducing Miss Emily – Grandmother Sherman – The awakening – One loaf of a batch is enough – The diploma – Dr. Chase – Seeing Hannah – The birthday party – The announcement – A mother’s farewell and message to her son.
Chapter 2 – My Own Story of my Father	15
The Governor – The Bell – A medical practitioner of the Old School – The Doctor’s sermon – These poor unfortunates – Go and sin no more
Chapter 3 – Life at East Palmyra, 1851 – 1863	29
Under the rod – First pair of suspenders – First day at school – Hired men – The charcoal pit – Sheep shearing time – Sunday school subscription – Showing off: Miss Stacey – How nice Frankie’s hair curls – Family prayers – Any port in a storm – School children – School games in the fifties – Trimming the apple trees – The swimming hole – First lesson in suggestion – Religion – Methodist ministers – The Civil War
Chapter 4 – The story of my Uncle Den	49
A very handsome man – The coveted pocket knife – Favoured by ladies – Professional struggles – The Blue Danube Waltz – The call of a stranger – What my wife said – The children – A bargain – Desertion or non-support – Mr. & Mrs. Beach
Chapter 5 – The love affairs of Uncle Den	57
Letting himself go – A Peer characteristic – Mrs. Bush’s confession – Fuel to fire – Interrupted love scenes – A homely woman, but a smiling face – The dark and the fair – The man behind the gun – The confession – An unaccountable impulse – Some confessions – My visitor enjoys himself – A forest maiden – City life – The candle and the moth – The death of love – A hasty marriage – A broken tooth – The woman with chestnut hair – Two weeks – Uncle Denslow goes away – The arrest – The post-mortem
Chapter 6 – A boy’s education	65
School days at Rochester – Military school – Death of Grandmother Sherman – Trip to Chocopee, Minnesota – The Navy – Carter’s Little Liver Pills – Shetland Island ponies
Chapter 7 – Pioneer days in Michigan	77
Timber thieves – An evening’s entertainment – Uncle Den’s visit – The Parson’s visit – The Great Michigan Fire – My first sweetheart – Grandfather Sherman again – The schooner Melvina – Old Man Savage – The Governess – Anna Voit – East Palmyra again
Chapter 8 – Life at East Palmyra – 1873 – 1884	101
Repairing the stables – Stationary engineer – Mint distillery – Saw mill – Threshing – School teaching – Miss Reeves’ trip to Watkins Glen – A farmer – A friend in need – The Centennial – A good Samaritan – Literary Society – The fancy dress party – The wedding – Washington – Home-keeping – Something new – The coating – A great mistake – A severe illness – Nothing to wear – Buying a baby’s wardrobe
Chapter 9 – This dear old man – Grandfather Sherman’s story	111
Every-day religion – Second-hand shops – The Will – Nothing left to divide – Traditional history – From England to Maine – Rhode Island – Cambridge – A virgin forest – Pioneer days – Brothers and sisters – Letter from Mr. Reeves

Chapter 10 – From Maple Lane Farm to Squawkie Hill	131
Maple Lane Farm – Emily again – Sherman – Colonel Sheppard – Murray Hill – Selling the old farm – Colonel Sheppard’s Failure – Genesee Valley Hounds – Squawkie Hill – Ashville, NC
Chapter 11 – Importing days	147
First trip abroad – A commission – A pair of Devon Calves – A close call – The suggestion cure – Living happy – The origin of the , Ithaca – Son’s circular tour – Rowing at Oxford – Our narrow escape from shipwreck – The commission business – Winter at Bangor, Maine – New England abandoned farms – Sheep ranch – Importers go and Importers come
Chapter 12 – Sporting days.....	153
I have had my hour – The Sibyll – International yacht race – Bay of Quilty – The Sibyll on Conesus Lake – The Sibyll goes with us to Ithaca – Yachting days on Lake Cayuga – Yachting on Lake Windermere – Bourne End – Cowes Week – Captain Poland and the cruise of the Titania – Fencing days – Y.M.C.A. exhibition – Hunting – Archie – Shooting day with rifle
Chapter 13 – Societies, clubs, etc.	167
KKK wins the prize for devilment – Masonry – The Author’s Club – Society for Psychic Research – First lessons in Suggestion – Mind telegraphy – The origin of Spiritualism – Mind healing – Theory of here and hereafter – A slate-writing medium – The Farmer’s Club – The American Club – New York Breeders’ Association
Chapter 14 – The war with Spain and Germany	177
Offering to join the Rough Riders – An interview with President Roosevelt – A great man – Egotism carried to madness – Fleas – Reporters – The big stick and noise – Wanted a furlough – Liars – When war was declared with Germany – Services offered – The great revolution in favour of war – Being suspected as a spy – A Secret Service man – The interview – Mr. Hall’s enlistment – Cost of not playing the game – Joining the Red Cross Service – Sarisbury Green Hospital School of Agriculture – An unhappy ending
Afterword.....	189
Timeline	193
Old Silo.....	194
Photographs & Illustrations	197