

Sudden Loss

RESOURCE NETWORK

What is a sudden and/or traumatic loss?

Death by suicide
Drug overdose resulting in death
Fatal car/ATV/snowmobile accident
Drowning
Homicide
Medical related death

Resources can include but are not limited to:

One-to-one conversations
Telephone conversations
Information and Referral
Problem Solving and Practical Assistance

For more information contact:

Suzanne Catholdi, Coordinator
(315) 946-5754

This collaboration of agencies, groups and individuals are working together to coordinate community-wide response to promote hope, healing and connection while reducing risk after suicide and other sudden losses. Resources, education and community supports will be available for anyone to access who has been affected by a sudden/traumatic loss.

Sudden Loss Resource Network is a division of

WAYNE BEHAVIORAL
HEALTH NETWORK