SALARY: Based on experience

DUTIES: Has responsible charge of and directs all activities of the police department.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

Graduation from high school or possession of a high school equivalency or comparable diploma as described in Section 58 of the Civil Service Law and six (6) years* of experience with an organized police force or law enforcement agency which must have involved investigation and/or apprehension of law violators.

NOTE: Graduation from a regionally accredited or New York State Registered two-year college with an associate degree in Police Science may be substituted for two years of the above experience. Experience with an organized law enforcement agency is interpreted to include Military Police, Sheriff's Department, F.B.I. or State Police.

Special Note: Pursuant to New York State Civil Service Law Section 58, no person shall be eligible for appointment to any rank above the rank of police officer unless that person has been appointed a police officer from an eligible list established according to merit and fitness or has previously served as a member of the New York State Police

Scopes / Subjects of examination: A test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and /or abilities in the following areas.

Knowledge of law enforcement methods, practices, and procedures. These questions test for knowledge of accepted police methods and practices and/or their application to situations in the police field. The questions are a sampling of the various knowledge that police personnel may be required to possess in the course of their day-to-day, work-related activities. Areas covered include investigation procedures, patrol techniques, police-community relations, courtroom procedures, personnel practices, policy making and budgeting procedures.

Knowledge of New York State laws – Criminal. These questions test the candidates' knowledge of the laws in effect on January 1, 2022. This portion of the test is a sampling of the various sections of the law that police personnel may encounter in the course of their day-to-day work-related activities. Laws covered may include the Penal Law, Criminal Procedure Law, Vehicle and Traffic Law, Family Court Act, and other laws relevant to law enforcement in New York State.

Administration – Police. These questions test for knowledge of the managerial functions involved in directing an A level police department. These questions cover such areas as: developing objectives and formulating policies; making decisions based on the context of the administrator's position and authority; forecasting and planning; organizing; developing personnel; coordinating and informing; guiding and leading; testing and evaluating; and budgeting.

Supervision. These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.

Understanding and interpreting written material. These questions test how well you comprehend written material. You will be provided with brief reading selections and will be asked questions about the selections. All the information required to answer the questions will be presented in the selections; you will not be required to have any special knowledge relating to the subject areas of the selections.

Preparing written material in a police setting. These questions test for the ability to prepare the types of reports that police personnel write. Some questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately. They consist of restatements of information given in note form. You must choose the best version from each set of four choices. Other questions test for the ability to organize paragraphs. They consist of paragraphs with their sentences out of order. For each of the paragraphs you must choose, from four suggestions, the best order of the sentences.

Test guide: A Guide for the Written Test for Police Chief/Assistant Chief is available at the New York State website: <https://www.cs.ny.gov/testing/testguides.cfm>. Candidates not having access to a computer or the internet may request copy of the test guide from the municipal civil service office conducting this examination using the contact information found elsewhere on this announcement.
