

"Did You Know" was an exhibit at the Museum of Wayne County History where the Changing Exhibition Room was filled full of fun, obscure, random facts about Wayne County.

Local Historians from Wayne County sent us some of their known and little known facts and research was also carried out in the library at the museum. The idea for a pocket-sized book was born of that exhibit and there are enough facts herein so that you will be that much more knowledgeable about Wayne County history.

The Museum of Wayne County History is located in the 1856 Wayne County Jail and Sheriff's residence in Lyons, NY.
