

Lucretia Mott: Quaker minister, abolitionist, suffragist and Seneca Falls Convention organizer

Jul 21, 7:00 PM

Farmington Friends Church, 187 Co Rd 8, Farmington, NY 14425, USA

Christopher Densmore, former curator of Friends Historical Library at Swarthmore College and Quaker scholar will speak on Mott's vital role in the great social reforms of her time.

Faces of Engagement 50 Years After Stonewall I: Study War No More!?

Aug 03, 2:00 PM

Wood Library, 134 N Main St, Canandaigua, NY 14424, USA

In narrative and song, historian Verdis Robinson will share his journey as an African-American gay man of faith

Restoring Indigenous Relationships with Land: A Biocultural Approach

Sep 14, 2:00 PM

Ganondagan State Historic Site, 7000 Co Rd 41, Victor, NY 14564, USA

Neil Patterson, a citizen of the Tuscarora Nation, will describe how indigenous peoples have unique relationships with the lands and waters of what is now called New York State.

Faces of Engagement 50 Years After Stonewall II: Healing and Trauma Recovery

Sep 29, 2:00 PM

Farmington Friends Church, 187 Co Rd 8, Farmington, NY 14425, USA

John will describe his years of work with prison inmates, refugees from torture, those living with HIV/AIDS, and survivors of abuse.

Sojourner Truth Tells It Like It Is

Oct 13, 2:00 PM

Sonnenberg Gardens, 151 Charlotte St, Canandaigua, NY 14424, USA

Eunice White delivers Sojourner Truth's "Ain't I A Woman?" speech

Mary Ann Shadd Cary: Black Women and the Early Suffrage Movement

Oct 26, 2:00 PM

Wood Library, 134 N Main St, Canandaigua, NY 14424, USA

Jane Rhodes will talk on Shadd Cary, the first black woman in North America to edit and publish a newspaper, one of the first black female lawyers in the United States and an advocate for granting women the right to vote.

<https://www.farmingtonmeetinghouse.org>