July

4 Gap Mangione Big Band

[Note: This concert is on Thursday.]

A true classic! Impressive repertoire of arrangements from the swing-band era to modern big-band & popular music.

7 Ross Hollow

Hailing from Indiana and on tour promoting a new album, their original music blends Americana, folk, blues, and indie.

14 Letizia and The Z Band

SAMMY Award winner Letizia has been voted best vocalist in Central New York. This energetic dance band plays everything from standards of the 1940s to today's pop hits. Don't miss this one!

21 Your American Jukebox

These talented musicians perform jazz, swing, big band, and more. This is their first performance on Sodus Bay—sure to become a crowd favorite.

ICE CREAM SOCIAL! Support the lighthouse by enjoying a huge sundae loaded with toppings for just $5.

28 The Dady Brothers

Widely traveled duo playing country, bluegrass, folk, and Irish music on traditional instruments.

August

4 Panloco

Versatile Western New York steel drum band playing Caribbean, jazz, pop, and classical music.

11 It's My Party!

This "teen" singing trio, styled after girl groups of the 1960s, dons vintage dresses and hairdos. Their wonderful harmony is backed by a talented band.

ICE CREAM SOCIAL! Support the lighthouse by enjoying a huge sundae loaded with toppings for just $5.

18 Heatwave Bluegrass

A talented trio of musicians playing traditional, high-energy bluegrass, with impressive picking & vocal harmonies.

25 Loren Barrigar with Special Guest Joe Whiting

At age six, Loren Barrigar played at Nashville's Grand Ole Opry and has been in demand ever since. He will be joined by Syracuse celebrity Joe Whiting. Two musical legends!

September

1 The Krazy Firemen

Whether playing Strauss waltzes, circus marches, rock 'n' roll, or country, this group delivers a wonderful performance.
