Local Law No. 2 of the year 19 74

A local law establishing an office an office for the aging
(Insert title)

Be it enacted by the Wayne County Board of Supervisors of the (Name of Legislative Body)

County
~~City~~ of Wayne as follows:
~~Town~~
~~Village~~

Purpose: In order to better provide for the needs of the elderly in our community, the County of Wayne hereby creates a Wayne County Office for the Aging.

SECTION 1. Duties and Powers: The duties and powers of said Office shall be:

- A. Plan environmental and personal services to meet the needs of the elderly population through the evaluation of services and the identification of major problems affecting the elderly.
- B. Stimulate and review needed programs and services for the elderly.
- C. Conduct research on the needs of the elderly in this community and develop alternative means of meeting these needs.
- D. Cooperate with elderly citizens and organizations servicing or representing the elderly to meet the needs of the elderly population of community.
- E. Provide information relative to programs and services for the elderly in the community and sources of support for programs and services.
- F. Encourage the cooperation of agencies servicing the elderly.
- G. Recommend to and cooperate with federal, state and local agencies in the development of public policy toward the elderly.

SECTION 11. Advisory Committee:

Within ninety days from the date of creation of such an office, the Board of Supervisors will appoint an advisory committee of between (7) and (15) members to advise the Board of Supervisors and the administrative officer of such Office on all operations of such an Office.

Initially, one third of the membership will be appointed for one year, one third for two years, and one third for three years; thus permitting the Board of Supervisors in subsequent years to appoint one third of the membership on a yearly basis for three year terms. Half of the membership of the committee may include actual or potential consumers of services provided by the county for older persons, with the remainder of the group to be broadly representative of major public and private agencies and organizations in the county concerned with the interests of older persons and other persons who are interested in or have demonstrated special interest in the special needs of the elderly. In the event of the death or resignation of any member, his successor shall be appointed to serve for the unexpired period of the term for which such member has been appointed. The Board of Supervisors may appoint county officials to serve ex officio on the committee.

The Chairman shall be appointed from the membership of the Committee by the committee members to serve for a term of 1 year. The Chairman shall preside at all Committee meetings and represent the committee.

The Vice Chairman shall be elected from the membership of the committee by the committee members to serve for a term of 1 year. The Vice Chairman shall, in the absence of the Chairman, act in his place.

SECTION 111. Annual Report:

The Wayne County Office for the Aging shall make an annual report to the County Board of Supervisors concerning its activities.

SECTION IV. Staff:

The Wayne County Office for the Aging shall have a professional and an auxiliary staff to fulfill the obligations as defined in the section entitled "Duties and Powers."

The administrative officer of the Office will be responsible to and appointed by the Board of Supervisors.

The number and nature of such staff will be determined by the Board of Supervisors.
