

NOTICE

Effective Monday September 14, 2020 The Office of the County Historian will be re-opening with the following restrictions:

- The Historian's Office will be open to the public by appointment.
- There will be a maximum of two researchers at a time
- Hand sanitizer will be available to the public at the front counter of the office.
- Face masks will be required for all entering the office.
- Staff will be required to wear a mask at the service counter and while interacting with customers
- Public area will be wiped down with sanitizer after each customer
- Customers will only be allowed in the public area of the office

For questions call or email:

Wayne County Historian:

Phone: (315) 946-5470

Email: historian@co.wayne.ny.us

We appreciate your patience and understanding as we all work through this public health emergency.

Mike Jankowski, Wayne County Clerk